

Agency Services Winter 2012 Workshop Menu

*Want to register for a workshop?
Please call us one week in advance at 942-6325.*

January Selection

Food Assistance Programs Are Helping Families During School Vacation Months

Tuesday, January 24 from 12:00 – 1:00 PM
A Lunch & Learn Workshop

Want to help your program's participating families feed their children better? Come and learn about how some of our innovative Member Agencies are helping families fill the food gap during school vacations. The workshop will feature an experienced panel of Member Agencies who will share their unique program ideas.

February Selection

Hunger Doesn't Take A Vacation: Summer Food Service Program Enables Children to Eat Healthy Year Round

Tuesday, February 7, 2012 from 12:00 – 1:00 PM
A Lunch & Learn Workshop

Are you feeding children during the summer? Have you thought about it? Steve Carey, from the RI Department of Education, will give an overview of how to access the USDA's Summer Food Service Program funding for providing healthy meals to children during summer vacation.

March Selection

Community Cooking: Wholesome Eating on a Budget

Thursday, March 1, 2012 from 3:00 – 4:00 PM

Community Cooking aims to provide participants with practical information that can be used to make healthier meal choices. Come learn about the Food Bank's new nutrition education program and how the program can help you teach your clients!

Samples of program recipes will be served!